All Strings Considered April 6, 7 p.m.

All Strings Considered has a primary focus on traditional old-time instrumental and vocal music of the Appalachian region with a bit of Celtic and Scandinavian tossed into the mix from time to time. The group's sound is a blend of Jamie Kitchel on fiddle, Rochelle Schuster on hammered dulcimer, Phil Watts on guitar, Annette Watts on autoharp, and Maggie Morgan on bass. All Strings Considered will get your feet tapping to those great traditional fiddle tunes then soothe your day with a gentle waltz or tell a story with an Appalachian song.

Mike Lepovsky April 13, 7 p.m.

A sweetheart of a guy and a local favorite! Don't miss the stories and songs of this talented singer and guitarist. One of his fans is the true, one and only Gordon Lightfoot!

Beechgrove & Blacksmith April 27, 7 p.m.

Beechgrove & Blacksmith are husband/wife duo Terri Bocklund and Curt Kowalski. Terri is an award-winning songwriter and composer, and was an Artist in Residence at Isle Royale National Park. Her songs are up-northy valentines to the powerful spirit of place in the UP. Curt accompanies her songs on guitar, harmonica, and violin, and jazzes it all up with a variety of percussion instruments they call "the spice rack."

Maynard Band April 20, 7 p.m.

The Maynard Band is back so get ready to dance! Founding members of the Silver Creek Band, they played throughout the Upper Peninsula in the 80's and early 90's. They continue to specialize in 50's/60's rock and roll, with folk-rock, country and novelty tunes thrown in from time to time.

Coming Up:

May 4: Chris Valenti

May 11: Kerry Yost and Harry South

May 18: Troy Graham and Colton Ort

May 25: Beechgrove & Blacksmith

June 1: Maynard Band

June 8: School of Rock
